

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

Whereas, it is fitting to pause and remember those who gave their lives for the citizens of West Virginia and the United States; and

Whereas, most of the richness of human experience lies in what is passed down from one generation to the next, and this legacy of wisdom, courage, bravery and sacrifice is worthy of remembrance and observance; and

Whereas, Run for the Wall was started as a healing and supportive effort for veterans and their families and supporters to raise awareness of people who are still missing in action; and

Whereas, the 32nd annual Run for the Wall will start in California on May 13, 2020, and end in Washington, D.C. on May 23, 2020; and

Whereas, the Run for the Wall will stop in Charleston, West Virginia on May 23, 2020.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim May 21, 2020 as:

Run for the Wall Day in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the First day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Seventh year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor

By the Governor:

Mac Warner
Secretary of State
