Governor Cuomo Announces Capital Region Cleared by International Experts to Begin Phase Two of Reopening Tomorrow

Governor Cuomo Announces Capital Region Cleared by International Experts to Begin Phase Two of Reopening Tomorrow

"Our team of international experts has reviewed the numbers and data for the Capital Region and confirmed that it's safe to proceed with phase two of reopening beginning tomorrow, June 3rd.

"As more businesses begin to reopen in this next phase, residents should remain responsible and diligent and continue to follow all social distancing and other public health guidelines to help prevent an increase in the spread of the virus."

New York Forward guidance for Phase 2 reopening can be found here.
