

Today, DPH updated the higher and lower risk states lists for the MA Travel Order.

10:00 AM · Sep 11, 2020 · Twitter Web App

5 Retweets 4 Quote Tweets 13 Likes

 Mass. Public Health @MassDPH · Sep 11
Replying to @MassDPH

Effective 12:01 am 9/12, Delaware, Pennsylvania and West Virginia have been removed from DPH's lower risk state list for MA's travel order due to increases in both positive test rates and cases per 100,000.

1 2 6

 Mass. Public Health @MassDPH · Sep 11
All travelers arriving to MA from DE, PA and WV must fill out a form, quarantine for 14 days or produce a negative COVID test. Please visit mass.gov/MATraveler for more info.

1 4

 Mass. Public Health @MassDPH · Sep 11
Effective 12:01 am 9/12, New Mexico has been removed from the higher risk state list for MA's travel order due to decreases in this state's positive test rates and cases per 100,000.

1 2 5

 Mass. Public Health @MassDPH · Sep 11
Travelers arriving from NM will no longer need to fill out the MA Travel Form and follow quarantine rules under the travel order. Please visit mass.gov/MATraveler for more info. #covid19MA

4